Natasha James--Her sultry rock sound with country overtones, and lyrical tales interwoven with musical textures borrowing from blues, bluegrass & zydeco take you straight to the heart with a bullet! With vocals reminiscent of Janis Joplin, Bonnie Raitt, Joan Baez and Stevie Nicks, Natasha James has a totally original sound that feels like you've known it forever.

Her new album, "Bad Judgements," recorded at The Plant, Sausalito, and mixed and engineered by Ronnie Rivera, is loaded with great songs backed by an all-star line-up of seasoned players.

From the title track to the focus single, 'Restless Kind,' Natasha James' technicolor tales with catchy choruses stick in your mind, and you find yourself humming her melodies again and again.
